To Whom It May Concern:

The appropriately credentialed bearer of this communication is providing a mission-critical role by providing health care services for the citizens of Missouri.

As these health services are critical to the well-being of the people of Missouri and regulated by the Department of Health and Senior Services, passage should be allowed for this person, property and/or equipment to perform their duties as ordered.

We request this individual to be permitted passage without delay or hindrance as they perform a health care service critical to the infrastructure of the State.

Sincerely,
