PREMIER DATA AND REPORTING PACKAGES

The Hospital Industry Data Institute's 2022 Premier Data and Reporting Packages include robust analytics-ready limited data sets, timely and comprehensive policy reports, and special impact studies. Optional data packages that include HIDI-curated encounter level indicators are available.

PREMIER DATA AND REPORTING PACKAGES

- HIDI's secure web portal will be populated with data and/or reports throughout the year as the data become available. The tables on the following pages outline the anticipated distribution date(s). Data and/or reports will remain in the premier folders until the package expiration on Dec. 31, 2022.
- Data will be removed from the premier folder(s) at the end of the subscription period to prepare for the inclusion of content associated with the following year's subscription.
- Staff from hospitals who do not renew their subscriptions to the premier packages for subsequent years will have premier access removed before the next subscription period.
- The subscription dates will remain January to December, regardless of the month that a member chooses to subscribe.
- Subscribers will have access to complete contents of the package, regardless of the month that a member chooses to subscribe.
- Package pricing will not be adjusted for late subscribers.
